Chips

Add catalogue of campus course: Pitching of horseshoes, Professor Jim Suter and Assistant Professor Aleck Porter. As many hours a week as you can get in. Laboratory is located between the Registrar's office and Building 2.

New G. W. song: "Horseshoes, horseshoes, horseshoes, crazy over horseshoes, horseshoes, horseshoes," and so on ad infinitum.

Now all that remains is for the campus to take up the sturdy occupation of hog-calling. One of our fraternities boasts of having pledged a champion hog-caller from somewhere in Missouri. Of course the proper time for such a contest should have been at the dear old Kyounty Fair duly held in the gymnasium Friday night, but no doubt the fraternities will get together and designate a time and place for a hog-calling contest among their pledges. "For the honor of the dear old fraternity..."

Gertrude Ederle failed to show up at chapel when expected, and the sweet girl reporter assigned to cover the event reported: "No news—she failed to appear." Which is in the category of the old journalistic yarn about the reporter, assigned to cover a wedding, who came in an hour late and explained: "No story; the wedding didn't come off. The bridegroom was shot at the door of the church."

Dr. George Anderson, one-time English prof at this fair alma mater, returned the other day, say the public prints, and looked the dear old place over. The story neglects to say that he took about six co-eds to lunch.

One of the many and varied publications received by this sheet is the Official Billiard Reporter, which tells you all about how to run a pool hall, play 18.2 ballline billiards (if 18.2 is the proper caliber), and many other things. This worthy compendium of learning, needless to say, is consigned to the same place where goes the Chip-sheet of the Methodist Board of Prohibition, Temperance, and Public Morals, edited by the Hon. Deets Pickett.

We now know all about the Columbian Debating Society and Mr. Gallagher—but where is Mr. Shean?

Every year some G. W. co-ed stages a sensational wedding. Last year it was Miss Mary McIntire; this year it was Miss Peggy Tackett, who attended this institution and who married a young man with shoulders about three feet wide, who captained the Lafayette football team. Truly, Miss Tackett was a winsome co-ed, and even runner-up in the Miss Washington contest. And what ordinarily mortal has a chance against such a paragon as the Lafayette captain? It ain't right.

George Washington, we note with pleasure, is rated by the Intercollegiate Press as one of the leading football teams of the east. But—it is no longer one of those with fewer than 20 points scored against it.

All of which proves why the Colonials are called "Iron Men by Necessity." When the entire list of reserves was thrown in, so that the regulars might have a rest before the C. U. game, they just couldn't hold Clem Crowe's men, who in addition to other virtues, had the Rockne style of attack. No, we must get along with our 13 or so Iron Men.

Credit must be given where credit is due, however, especially to one "Bud" Barrow, very light back, who tore through St. Vincent for several nice gains, and one touchdown. Not half bad.

Our motto for this week: Are we going to have Concord State score nineteen points too?

We are in receipt of a letter from the Columbian Debating Society headed by Mr. Gallagher (or is it Mr. Shean?), which announces that we are invited to a great big C. D. S. dance. Very likely we will be there, if basketball games, Hatchet meetings, et cetera, et cetera, do not prevent us. Do not fail to mention apartment parties.

Of course the English debaters will be present at the dance. The Interfraternity Council of course, as of old, will be on hand to entertain these gentlemen from Reading, Edinburgh, London (spell the gentlemen with a big G, please, Mr. Compositor), and no doubt they will get the low-down on American universities, including co-eds.

We hope they do not learn the worst: that some of all, eds, and co-eds, are rather uninteresting.

Add campus course: Swiping of Signs. Special seminar, given in Pennsylvania and Maryland, between State College, Pa., and the District Line. Professors will not be announced. Ask the cops.

However, we think that signs were the only things that were hooked. The G. W. students were quite happy but not at all disorderly.

BOARD ANNOUNCES COMPLETE PLANS FOR 1927 VODVIL

Production Is Under Direction Of Dramatic Association's Board of Managers

VODVIL ON EITHER DECEMBER 15 OR 16

Kate Bannerman to Run Sorority Acts; Bob Williams in Charge of Frat Acts

Plans for the annual Vodvil to be given this year are rapidly being carried into effect by the Board of Managers of the Dramatic Association.

At the regular weekly meeting last Wednesday night of the Association, Kate Bannerman, Phi Mu, delegate on the Pan-Hellenic Association, was chosen to manage the sorority acts, and Bob Williams, Kappa Alpha Alpha delegate on the Interfraternity Council, was chosen for a similar position in regard to the fraternity acts.

The duties of these students will be to rally all of the fraternities and sororities into action immediately as tryouts are to be held as soon as possible. All independent organizations are likewise encouraged to participate in the Vodvil.

To Be Given in Gym Unless some other notice is made, the show will be given for one performance only either on December 15 or 16. The place, will be the Gym where the Vodvil has for several years been one of the highlights of the year's activities.

The management this year is striving to make the production come off as smoothly as possible, and for that reason it is to be given under the auspices of the Dramatic Association. This group, already busily engaged upon the varsity play to be produced in the spring, is depending upon the various student groups for the co-operation that can make the 1927 Vodvil the best in history.

Any information a group may desire concerning the Vaudeville, can be given by members of the Board of Directors, Edward Moulton, Marion Campbell, Pern Henninger, Betty Wiltbank, Max Tandler, George Spangler, Kenneth Yearns, and Harold Blackman.

WOMEN LAW STUDENTS CHARTER PARIS GROUP

Kappa Beta Pi First Greek Letter Organization to Install European Chapter

Establishing a chapter at the University of Paris has distinguished Kappa Beta Pi, legal sorority, as the first Greek letter organization to install a unit on the European Continent. The new chapter has been named Alpha Omicron.

Many brilliant women lawyers are numbered in this newly chartered group. Mme. Susanne Grinberg, who acting as the installing officers, was initiated as an honorary member of Kappa Beta Pi when she was in the United States last year.

Madame Grinberg is the subject of an article in the Kappa Beta Pi Quarterly, by Beatrice Clephane, who is a former G. W. student, having graduated from the Law School here.

According to information given out by the organization, Kappa Beta Pi expects an increased membership for Alpha Omicron soon, as there are over one hundred women students now studying law at the University of Paris. The present membership of the chapter numbers eight.

Program For Year Planned By Anglicans

Dr. Robert Johnston, at St. John's Church, Address Club at December Meeting

The George Washington University Episcopal Club, at a meeting on Thursday, November 10, planned the social program of the year and also elected one officer.

Mary Louise Beard was chosen to serve as vice president of the club until February 1, when mid-year elections for all positions will take place. The former vice president, Mildred Thomas, was forced to resign on account of ill health.

Preparations for a theater party at Keith's were discussed, the date being set for November 22.

An informal dance will be given in C. H. 1, on December 3, at fifty cents per capita.

The next two meetings of the club are to be purely social and will be held at the home of some member of the club.

The Rev. Dr. Robert E. Johnston, of St. John's Episcopal Church, has consented to deliver a short address at the next meeting, which has been set for December 1. Since Dr. Johnston's sermons are said to be the most intellectual offered by Washington ministers, a large attendance is expected.

Bolwell Craved Cigar, Confined to House With Cold; Can Smoke Again

"What wouldn't I give for a smoke right now," said Professor Bolwell of the English department, as his colleague, Professor Croissant came in to pay him a call last Sunday afternoon, puffing away on a big cigar.

It could not be, however, for the Doctor had pronounced him "down with a bronchial cold," and confined him to his home. After a few days absence he is back at school again and able to meet his classes as usual. It is also understood that the redolent rope is no longer forbidden him.

SIX HUNDRED ARE PRESENT AT FAIR

"Our Kyounty" Turns Out Record Representation, To Try Roulette Wheel, In Style

CHI O WINS GOLDEN APPLE

But Gamma Beta Pi Turns in More Money Than Any Sorority Than in History of Event

Former County Fair records were broken last Friday night at the annual event in the Gymnasium, when over six hundred G. W.-ites and their friends were present to take part in the many events.

The Delta Chi sprung a surprise in the form of a roulette wheel, which proved to be one of the most popular booths of the entire evening. For those especially curious to learn of their past, present, and future Sigma Kappa had several capable palmists to enlighten them. Popular voting disclosed the interesting fact that Chi Omega was the favorite, with Kappa Delta and Zeta Tau Alpha following close. The former was awarded a pound of candy, as was Zeta Tau Alpha, whose booth was declared the most novel by a group of judges.

Gamma Beta Pi inaugurated a new service in the form of checking anything "from hairnets to galoshes," and in spite of the fact that the racks collapsed it was merely some excitement to enjoy. It is interesting to note that this booth turned in more money than has ever been received before by one sorority.

Acacia pledges assisted Virginia Blackstone, chairman of the dancing, in handling the dancing, the most popular of all amusements at the County Fair.

Many Chaperones

Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. Hull remained at the Fair the entire evening and chaperoned the affair. Other chaperones included Dr. Lowell J. Ragatz, Dr. Robert Griggs, Dean Rose, Miss Kincannon, and Miss Jones.

Louise DuBose, chairman of the County Fair, was assisted by Barbara Miller, who had charge of the decorations, Verna Parsons obtained the fraternity and sorority banner, and Virginia Blackstone who secured the orchestra.

Chi Omega did not dispose of all of its stock, so that it is possible to secure chewing gum (all flavors) from any Chi O until the supply runs out.

Punch Is Popular

Punch was so popular that the Pi Phi saw the bottom of the punch bowl long before they had expected. Phi Sigma Sigma also sold out before the evening was over.

Delta Zeta had a well-decorated booth in its sorority colors of pink and green. Those who thought they could play base ball or hit the bull's eye tried their skill at "Hitting Otto" and many seemed to break the poor boy's nose, much to the delight of the Kappa Deltas. Right next door was served ice cream (10c.) to the weary "pitchers" by the Alpha Delta Pis.

Phi Delta, Alpha Delta Theta, and Phi Mu made their contributions in the form of color, noise, and smokes, respectively.

Dr. G. F. Anderson, Now At Brown, Visits G. W.

Former George Washington Instructor in English Returns to Scenes of Former Activity

Dr. George F. Anderson, assistant professor of English at Brown University, and former instructor in English at George Washington, visited the University last week.

Dr. Anderson was in Philadelphia for a Folk Lore conference, and returned to George Washington to look in on the English department and see familiar sights.

While here he assisted Dean Wilbur and Dr. Bolwell and taught several advanced courses in English. This is his first year at Brown.

WOMEN'S G. W. CLUB

The Women's G. W. Club will meet in the Women's Building on Wednesday evening at 7.30, at which time plans for the club rooms for the organization will be discussed. The meetings have not been well attended this year, and since there is so much important business to come up at this week's meeting, the officers have asked that all members be there.

ENGLISH DEBATE FRIDAY RECEIVES WIDE ATTENTION

Britons From Reading, Edinburgh, London Universities, Are Well Known

G. W. OPPONENTS HAVE DEBATED IN EUROPE

Subject Involves Pacifism, Armament, World Court, League of Nations and Other Peace Plans

Debating for the 1927-28 season will be formerly opened on Friday, November 18, at 8 p. m., when President Cloyd Heck Marvin presides at the international debate between the triple-university team representing Great Britain and the G. W. Varsity squad, in the Gymnasium, 2010 H Street N. W. Following the English system, no official judges have been appointed, but the audience will act in that capacity at the conclusion of the debate.

This engagement gives George Washington University the distinction of being the first American college team to meet a British team composed of men from three different universities. The audience will be afforded the opportunity by this combination of observing a more diversified English type of oratory, than has previously been their privilege.

The subject this year is one of increasing importance and interest both nationally and internationally. The question, Resolved: That the most effective attitude toward is an uncompromising pacifism, will be close to the hearts of the Englishmen because of the affirmative position their country takes toward the World Court and Peace.

English are Political Men

These English debaters have sponsored this question not only in their university circles but also in the national and political life of their country; for John Ramage of the London School of Economics and Political Science is an executive of the London branch of the Independent Labor party, and has contributed to the same political magazine with J. Ramsay MacDonald. Young Ramage, as only an Englishman can, combines practical knowledge of economics and politics, both national and international, with eloquence and social enthusiasm; and he carries them all with modesty and homely wit.

PI DELTA EPSILON TO HOLD NEWS CONTEST

Dean H. G. Doyle is Re-elected Grand Vice President at Columbus Convention

Pi Delta Epsilon will conduct a national editorial contest among college papers, according to Dean Henry Grattan Doyle, Grand Vice President, who has just returned from the annual convention of the Pi Delta Epsilon Fraternity held at Ohio State University November 10, 11 and 12. The local chapters at Ohio State, Ohio Wesleyan and Cincinnati U. were the hosts to representatives of the other forty chapters.

The re-election of Dean Henry Grattan Doyle to the position of grand vice president of this national journalistic fraternity at its annual conclave is a signal honor to the university as well as to the chapter here.

The editorial contest will be nationwide, and will be divided into two separate classes; one for the members of Pi Delta Epsilon, and the other for non-members, but conditions for both will be identical. Editorials which are published in college papers will be eligible for consideration, and will be judged by prominent newspaper men of Washington. Prizes amounting to two hundred and seventy dollars will be equally divided between the two classes in the following manner: First prize of fifty dollars, second, of thirty-five dollars, and varying amounts to ten dollars for fifth selections.

The local chapter of Pi Delta Epsilon at George Washington University is expected to cooperate to the fullest extent, and promote an active interest in the competition which will involve editorials published in The Hatchet.

PEP CLUB DANCES WILL BE RESUMED THIS WEEK

The next Pep Club meeting will be held November 20. All G. W. girls are invited as guests of the club, but men must pay the usual charge of ten cents, according to Ford Young, president.

The last two dances have been postponed because of the Penn State game and the County Fair, but in the future they will be held every Saturday as usual. A big Pep Club Meeting is planned in conjunction with the regular assembly on the Tuesday before the C. U. game, and a big victory dance is hoped for on the following Saturday.

BUFF AND BLUE ELEVEN SMASHES THROUGH FOR WIN OVER ST. VINCENT

Colonials Flash Bits of Usual Form In Scoring At Will Through-out, With Scrappy But Light Team From Latrobe, Pennsylvania

SIX GEORGE WASHINGTON TOUCHDOWNS SCATTERED THROUGH FOUR QUARTERS; SAINTS BUNCH SCORES

Three Enemy Touchdowns Result as Second-string Colonials Are Used to Rest Regulars in Final Period; Spectacular Plays Feature Battle at Central Stadium

By P. E. HENNINGER

The George Washington eleven, using a rushing attack combined with an effective passing game, crushed the fighting St. Vincent College team of Latrobe, Pa., in Central High School Stadium, last Saturday, before a crowd of 2,000 persons. The score was 40 to 19.

Early in the game the Colonials demonstrated their superiority in all departments of the game and it soon became apparent that it would merely be a matter of adding touchdown after touchdown to the score.

The Saints, however, deserve a hand for the undying fight which they displayed until the very end of the game. In the fourth quarter they came back strong, after being seemingly beaten beyond hope, with a determination to overcome the 34-point advantage held by the Colonials, and in one last attempt scored 19 points.

Henry Sapp scored the first touchdown for G. W. in the opening quarter when he went over the last marker after spearing a 10-yard pass hurled by Sanders. Stehman scored the extra point on a placement kick. Stehman plunged through the opposing line for the second touchdown and the Buff and Blue got the added point when the Saints were called offside.

Sapp and Carey Combine

Sapp threw a long pass to Carey for the third score. Stehman's placement sailed between the posts for another point. Lopenman's spectacular 50-yard dash after spearing an enemy pass accounted for the fourth touchdown. The try for point after touchdown was blocked but Referee Metzler awarded G. W. the

TUNNEY WILL BE AT G. W. CONCERT

Heavyweight Champ Will Attend Meeting Where Colonial Co-Eds Sing War Songs

AFFAIR WILL BE NATIONAL

Belleau Wood Remembrance Will Be Held at Auditorium; Champ Marine, Will Be Timely

The Women's Glee Club will make its first public appearance of the year Friday, November 19, at the Washington Auditorium.

The entire club is contributing to the program of the Belleau Wood Memorial Concert by the singing of war songs and the national anthems of France and of the United States. Miss Estelle Wentworth is director of the Glee Club's part in the program.

Since the Marines won the battle of Belleau Wood in the World War, the presence of Gene Tunney, one time Marine and now heavyweight champion of the world, at the concert will be of double interest.

Tickets at Willard Hotel

Tickets for the concert may be obtained at the Willard Hotel at from one dollar to three and a half.

The Glee Club expects to participate in the program of the Corporate Community Center, meeting to be held some time in December. Definite plans have not as yet been made.

Programs Planned For Game With Catholic U.

Will Contain Pictures of Coach and Team, Alma Mater Songs and Yells

One of the features of the approaching George Washington-Catholic University game will be the distribution of 1,000 programs, which are now in process of publication. Allen Neil and George Garber are in charge of preparations, and their efforts promise something unique in the way of attractive folders.

The programs will contain the alma mater song and other suitable songs and yells. There will also be pictures of the football coach, the student-manager and members of the team.

The results of games in which George Washington has figured will be printed. This list will include contests of bygone seasons as well as those of this year.

The price of the programs has been set at 25 cents.

NEW FACULTY MEMBERS ANNOUNCED BY TRUSTEES

Six Instructors Added to University Teaching Staff

At a meeting of the Board of Trustees, held Wednesday, November 9, several new members were added to the faculty.

Miss Emeline S. Whitcomb was appointed lecturer in home economics, and Miss Anna P. Cooper associate professor of English. Both Dr. E. H. Harrington and Dr. C. C. Kress were made lecturers in physics.

Announcement was made also of two appointments made October 2. On that date Miss Blanche W. Rolinson received the office of lecturer in home economics, while H. H. Duton was appointed instructor in materials testing for the second semester of this year.

MISS JONES RETURNS

Miss Evelyn Jones, assistant to the Dean of Women, was absent from the University two days last week due to a cold and slight touch of la grippe.

KILBURN NOMINATED FOR LAW PRESIDENCY

Other Student Officers are Nominated by Classes in Stockton Hall for Impending Election

Meetings of the classes in the Law School for the nomination of class officers and a president of the Student Body were held in Stockton Hall last Thursday evening. Each class met separately and received the names of those nominated for the offices of president and secretary-treasurer. All students then gathered in the Assembly Room and nominated the president of the Student Body. Thursday, November 17, 1927, is the date decided upon by the Law School Committee on Student Affairs for election day. The polls will be open during all class hours and for a limited time before and after classes.

The following nominations for the offices were received:

For President of the Student Body, Henry T. Kilburn. Fourth Year Class. For President, Francis E. Van Alstine. For President, Francis E. Van Alstine. Richard K. McPherson. For Secretary-Treasurer, William Smith. Third Year Class. For President, Sherman Hill. Stephen Blackman, Paul D. Dingwell. For Secretary-Treasurer, A. J. Haskari, Lena Hyatt. Second Year Class. For President, Angelo M. Pisarro, Frank Towles. For Secretary-Treasurer, Wilbur Baughman, H. J. Wells. First Year Class. For President, H. W. Vesey, J. H. Highsmith, A. W. Perry. For Secretary, Justice Chambers, J. D. Stukes, J. T. Wobensmith.

Brown Entertains at Piano

One of the most enjoyable events of the evening was the playing by Elmer Brown of several pieces from "Not Yet Fleurette," and "Just a Kiss," the original plays given last year, and the year before, respectively, by the Troubadours. Many of the Glee Club men joined in singing the favorite numbers.

Announcement was made that the first regular concert of the year will probably be given at the opening of the National Press Club's new quarters about December 1. This is tentative but the management feels that the date will be made. If secured, this concert will be given before one of the most distinguished audiences which the club has appeared before, for as it will include President and Mrs. Coolidge and the official family as well as many internationally prominent journalists and writers.

Director Harmon has announced that because of their lax attendance several men will be dropped from the club. This is necessary because the songs that make up this year's repertoire are difficult and require regular attendance at rehearsals by all members in order that all the fine points that distinguish good singing from mediocre singing may be committed to memory.

THE SUN ALSO SETS

Shortening of the women's varsity basketball schedule marks a step which is noteworthy in the history of the University, for the day of intercollegiate competition for women is nearly over. Practically all the larger women's colleges and universities have either ceased all intercollegiate games or have greatly reduced varsity schedules. Sports are becoming something for the whole student body, not a selected few. Mass participation, not individual achievement is the goal that has been set by physical education heads all over the country, and George Washington University is gradually accepting it.

It is indeed a shame, for it sets women's activities far below those of the men. And why?

OH, THE WOMEN!

Men of this University have often felt themselves superior in many respects to the women; indeed, this is not a sectional prejudice. Perhaps it is universal.

But, according to that feeling of right and justice which this Hatchet feels it must emanate, The Hatchet must admit that it can not concur in this ancient feeling. For in many respects the women have proved their ability beyond that of the male.

Witness the fact that the women of this University are fast making for themselves a government of their own. They are now in the process of forming a Women's Athletic Association of the University. In this particular especially, the men would do more than well to follow the women; for at present athletics are conducted, half by the faculty, and half in a strange and unorganized manner by such students as deign to come out for managerships.

A REGENT CENSORS STUDENT NEWS

(Oregon Daily Emerald.)

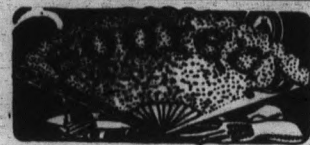

Some of the highly combustible Lindsey tinder has flared up at the University of California at Los Angeles. A vagrant spark, in the form of the Portland report of a "Revolt of Youth" lecture, published in the daily Bruin, caused the conflagration. Regent Edward Dickson has ordered the Bruin hermetically sealed in hope of suffocating the incipient blaze.

As editor of the Los Angeles Express, Mr. Dickson should be qualified to pass judgment on the propriety of news. And as former editor of the Daily Californian, he should know the just scope of college papers. As a regent of the university he considers Judge Lindsey's views on youth unfit for campus consumption.

All this is easily explained, but Mr. Dickson's remedy is far more dangerous than the evil which he attempts to stamp out. He tampers with democratic student administration and establishes with one gesture, a despotism. He usurps authority from the Bruin editor and takes advantage of regental privilege to enter by the back door and clamp a censorial muzzle on the Bruin. If successful, this act of the California regent undermines the entire undergraduate structure of self-determination.

Without discretionary rights, the student editor becomes a marionette dancing to the whimsical tugs of any meddlesome passerby. If supervisory pressure is found necessary, it should be brought to bear through the responsible editor, not through official university channels. Criticism, advice, suggestions—all these could be freely bestowed with benefit to the student publication from the sagacity of long professional experience. But the satisfaction of a peremptory command is not legitimately obtained by the overhead route.

Any despotic control, no matter how benign, is inimical to the fairest and most truthful news treatment. Such control robs the paper of all initiative. It is restricted to house-organ compass.

Should Yiddish or Hebrew Be Language of Palestine, Is Subject of Forensics

The Menorah Society of George Washington University had a meeting last Wednesday evening, November 9, in Corcoran Hall 17. There was an open debate on the question, "Resolved, That Yiddish Should be the National Language of Palestine Instead of Hebrew." Abe Blajwas defended the affirmative, and Aaron Gerber the negative. After the debate there was an open discussion.

Mr. Rosen, a student here at the University who comes from Palestine, gave a very interesting talk on the conditions there.

Dean of Women To Address Meeting

Next Meeting of International Relations Club Will Be November 17

Miss Anna Loretta Rose, Dean of Women, will speak at a meeting of the International Relations Club, on Thursday, November 17, at 8 o'clock, in Corcoran Hall 27. Her subject will be "The Attitude of Europeans Toward American Tourists." She has just returned from a tour of seven European countries.

After Miss Rose's talk the Club will have its monthly business meeting, at which time the Constitution will be revised, and the election of officers held. All students interested in Political Science and International Relations are invited to attend this meeting.

Friday, November 18, 12.10, University Chapel. Speaker—Dean Lapham. Soloist—Fred East, baritone.

Tuesday, November 22, 12.10, University Chapel. Speaker—Dean Ruediger. Soloist—Professor Spaulding, of the Law School.

Saturday, November 19, the Board of Lady Managers of the George Washington University Hospital will hold a tea and linen shower at the Nurses' Home, 1016 Thirteenth Street N. W., from 4 to 6 o'clock. Friends of the Hospital and University are invited to be present.

Owing to the total lack of anything exciting socially at school this week, the students find themselves forced to enjoy themselves either in retrospection or anticipation. As most of us have not reached the age where one gets any real kick out of retrospection, we'll see if we can't tell a few of the things that will make the Thanksgiving holidays worth anticipating.

The Carlton Hotel will be the scene of the Thanksgiving Formal of the Sigma Chi Fraternity on the evening of November 23. Many of the local alumni and friends are expected, as well as members of the chapter.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon will hold its annual Thanksgiving dance at the chapter house on Wednesday, November 23. The Naomi Band, headed by Kenneth Texter, will hold forth. It is rumored that Babe Whyte will hold "fifth."

The Thanksgiving dance of the Kappa Sigma Fraternity will be held at the L'Aiglon on November 22, and will be in the novel form of a supper dance. Music will be furnished by the Naomi Band.

The S. P. E.'s will hold their dance at the chapter house on Wednesday, November 23, and it is expected to be quite the usual success.

Kappa Beta Pi, legal sorority, entertained at a bridge at the home of Professor and Mrs. Charles S. Collier on Rosemary Street last Saturday night.

Phoebe Tauberschmidt and Marion Campbell entertained the promisees of Zeta Tau Alpha at the home of Marion Campbell last Sunday afternoon.

Kappa Sigma announces the initiation of George Vass and Kenneth Hobbs at the ceremony held at their chapter house last Sunday.

Roger Barnes, of S. A. E., spent last week-end in New York.

Beta Alpha Chapter, of Zeta Tau Alpha, held a dinner on Monday, November 14 at Pierre's in honor of the anniversary of the chapter's installation.

The Alumnae Chapter of Gamma Beta Pi will give an informal supper, followed by bridge, Thursday, November 17, at the Pierce Mill Tea House, in honor of the promisees.

Members of Gamma Beta Pi entertained their promisees at a week-end party at Virginia Blackstone's cottage at Arundel, Md.

Theta Upsilon Omega entertained a number of co-eds at dinner Sunday. Miss Helen Kerr, Miss Bernadine Horn, Miss Margaret Bouve, Miss Phoebe Gale, Miss Christine Bannerman, Miss Eleanor Wilson, Miss Marguerite Mooney, Miss Sue Milne, Miss Josephine Johnson, and many others, including alumni, were present.

Florence Helm, of Temple University, was the week-end guest of Dorothy Ruth.

Clara Roberts is visiting friends in Pennsylvania this week.

Phi Alpha announce the pledging of Benj. Kall, Ira Werblow, and Joseph Katzman.

NEWMAN CLUB HEARS ROMAN CHURCH HISTORY

Dr. John K. Cartwright spoke at the Newman Club last Tuesday on the "Beginning of the Church." He traced the so-called Roman Question from its inception at the time of Popin in the Eighth Century to the present diplomatic relations between the Vatican and the Quirinal. He told of the rise of power of the Papacy in Italy until the time of the Italians, and its slow loss of power until the final subjection of all papal property.

The social committee has announced that there will be a card party held on December 8, at some hotel not yet chosen.

The next meeting of the Newman Club will be held in Corcoran Hall, Room 22, Tuesday, November 22. Dr. Ryan, of the Catholic University, will speak.

HAZING STOPS AT V. M. I.

LEXINGTON, Va. (IP).—Hazing may be all right in its place, but it can go too far, is the opinion of the authorities at the Virginia Military Academy, and as a result of this reasoning, there will be no more hazing at V. M. I.

The trouble started when a freshman was taken to the hospital after hazing escapades. A senior cadet was suspended for his part in the affair, and 700 cadets went on strike. Now all those who have struck are on grounds for four weeks, with all special privileges revoked until December 22. And there will be no more hazing.

HURRAH FOR MAX!

CHICAGO, Ill. SIGMA PHI PI

The Sigma Phi Pi, intercollegiate fraternity, will open a Chapter at this University. Further announcement will be made.

GATE AND KEY SOCIETY HAS MONTHLY MEETING

Next Party at Phi Sigma Kappa House December 3

The Gate and Key Society held its regular meeting of the month at the Sigma Alpha Epsilon House last Wednesday night to discuss plans for the social events of the near future.

The Phi Sigma Kappa house will be the scene of the next party, which will be held on December 3. The fall initiation date, at which the time the present neophytes will pass "under the wood," will be announced soon.

Vernon Brown's trip to Europe left a vacancy for the position of secretary, which was filled by the election of George Martin. Those elected to membership were Healy of Sigma Phi Epsilon, and Spangler of Acacia.

DARTMOUTH STUDENTS AID FLOOD RELIEF WORK

Dartmouth College boys last week forsook their halls of learning at Hanover, N. H., and went to the aid of White River Junction, a nearby town that was badly hit by the flood. Dressed in their oldest clothes, and wielding picks and shovels, the 900 boys assisted army and civil authorities in clearing away mud and debris, building temporary bridges and repairing highways.

NEXT YEAR'S CATALOGUE WILL BE READY IN MARCH

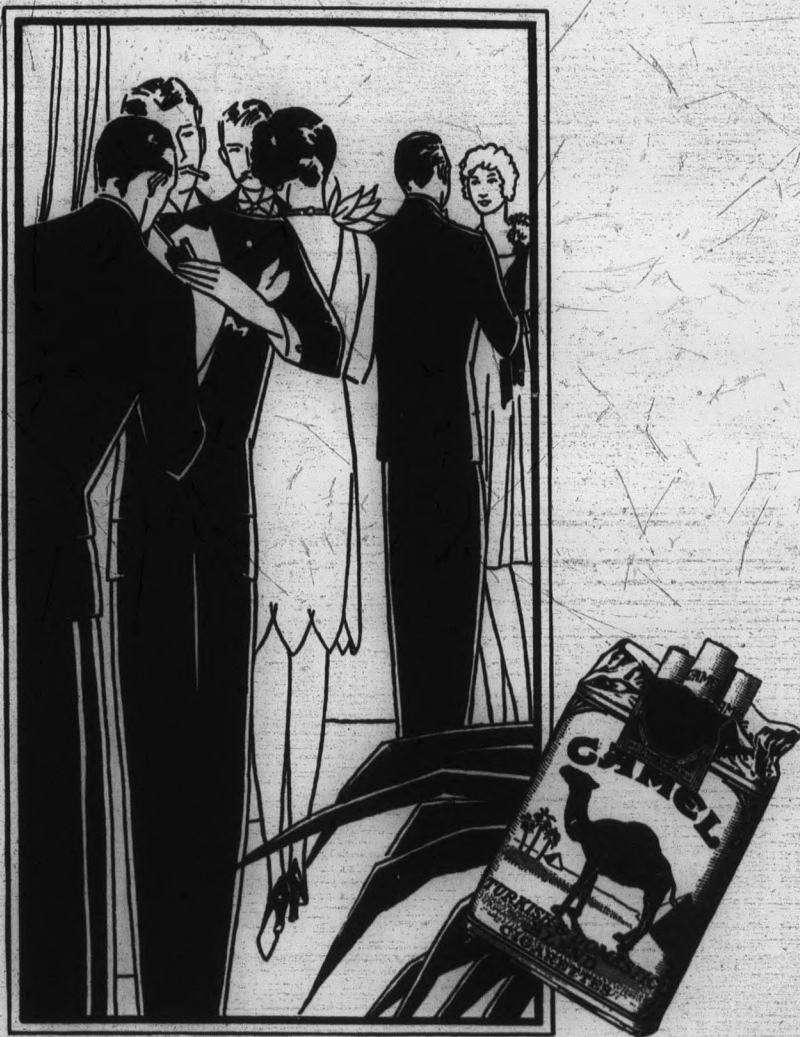

The George Washington University catalogues for next year are now under compilation, and it is expected that they will be ready for publication not later than March 1, 1928. A study of type faces and typographical styles for the catalogue is being made by the President's Office. When the catalogues are printed they will be distributed to the high schools and to George Washington students.

Y. W. MEETS NOVEMBER 21

Next Monday, November 21, the Y. W. C. A. will hold its Thanksgiving meeting in the Women's building at 12.10, at which time there will be an interesting speaker. Plans for the Thanksgiving Service work will also be announced and it is thought that a family will be looked after by the Y girls.

Some call it mellowness . . .

SOME say that Camel is the mellowest cigarette ever made. Some that it's mild and smooth. It's really all good things in one, and that is why it is supreme upon the pinnacle of modern favor. Camel's popularity today is the largest that any cigarette ever had.

And, it costs something to make this kind of a smoke. It costs the choicest tobaccos that money can buy, and a blending that spares neither time nor expense. Each Camel cigarette is as full of value as the world of tobacco can give.

You can be sure of smoking pleasure, serene and full, in these quality cigarettes. Smoke all of them you want; they simply never tire the taste.

COLONIALS WILL TACKLE STRONG CONCORD SQUAD

Journey to Welch, W. Va., Saturday to Meet Powerful Mountaineer Aggregation

COAL HEAVERS LOSE TO WILLIAM & MARY, 12-7

Injuries May Handicap Hatchettes; Last Game Before C. U. Game on Thanksgiving

George Washington's team will play one of the strongest elevens in West Virginia when it meets the Concord State team at Welch, W. Va., on Saturday, November 19.

The latest indication of the strength of the Colonials' next opponents may be readily seen from the score of the Concord State-William and Mary game which was played last Saturday at Williamsburg. The Virginia team won the game 12 to 7, but was outplayed throughout the contest, getting only four first downs to Concord's fourteen. The strong lights under which the clash was played only served to confuse the visitors who had never handled the ball in a night game before. It was the general consensus of opinion that the result would have been in Concord's favor with natural conditions.

Crummen Anticipate Battle

Coach Crum's men expect a real battle from the Mountaineers this Saturday, and are going into the fray pointed especially for this meeting. Assistant Coach Avis has reported back from his scouting trip with the words of caution that we may look for one of the hardest games of the season.

Concord has a fighting squad of thirty-five husky players, while the present number eligible for Coach Crum's trip is about fifteen, with Captain Allshouse and Walker still on the bench list with injuries. This leaves the Colonials practically without reserve material for the forward wall, because the reserve men are mostly adapted to the backfield.

However, as was well proven in the Penn State and St. Vincent games, this single string of seven men who have played in the last few games are able to hold against their fresher opponents when called upon, and provide excellent interference in the running.

While it is not expected that many will make the four-hundred-mile journey to watch the Capital City "iron men" battle this aggregation from West Virginia, all eyes will follow the score with intense interest. This is the last tilt in which the Colonials engage until the Turkey Day battle with Catholic University.

NEW TYPE TARGETS TO BE USED BY RIFLEMEN

Varsity Squad Practicing on New Bullseyes for Telegraphic Match With V. P. I.

New official N. R. A. targets which will be used in all matches to be shot with small caliber rifles this year, have just been received at the range. The bullseye on the new target measures nine-sixty-fourths of an inch in diameter, making a much smaller mark to hit than has been used in former years.

There are two main advantages to be realized with this new target size. Probably the most important is that there will be not nearly so many perfect scores and therefore less likelihood of having the scores in matches during the season.

The members of the varsity squad are practicing regularly on the new target so that they may become thoroughly accustomed to it before the first match, which will be shot telegraphically with Virginia Polytechnic Institute during the week after Thanksgiving. The team which will compete in this match has only been picked tentatively and will not be announced until later.

Many new men are trying out for both the freshman and varsity teams and are showing marked improvement.

GOAL POSTS FOOL PLAYERS

NEW YORK (IP).—That you can't teach an old football player new tricks was well illustrated here Sunday when Hinkley Haines, former Penn State football star, snared a pass from his Giant teammates in a professional game, eight yards over the enemy's goal, and attempted to run the remaining two yards to what he thought was the goal. The Yellow Jacket players, who were defeated 27-0, also thought he was going toward the goal instead of away from it, and pounced on him thinking they had spoiled a touchdown. It was a touchdown, however, for the goal posts ten yards from the goal had fooled 'em all.

NEW TARGETS USED IN RIFLE MATCHES

Girls' Rifle Team Practices For Meet of National Rifle Association

The George Washington Girls' Rifle team will defend its title sometime in February at the National Rifle Association meet. The individual championships will also be shot at this time.

The team has received many challenges and will accept as many as the limited time allows. The season will not start until after Christmas and the matches are to be shot in three stages. Each of these divisions will consist of two strings of ten shots apiece.

A new type of target is being used in Rifle this year. The size of the bull's eye has been reduced to about one-third the diameter of the old type target.

There is still time for girls to come out for rifle and try for either the Varsity or Beginner's teams.

Final Round Reached In Tennis Tournament

Omwake and Davis Play Off For Championship Soon; Team Not Yet Picked

The George Washington tennis court was the scene of two decisive battles last week, when the semi-final matches were played off in the women's fall tennis tournament.

By winning over Mary Ewin, Miriam Davis qualified for the final tennis match. Her opponent in the finals, Lou Omwake, won her place by conquering Hurd, 6-1, 0-6, 6-1.

As soon as the match is played off between Omwake and Davis, the victor will be declared women's champion tennis player of George Washington University. The list of the high ten women in rank, who will compose the 1927 tennis team, has not yet been made up.

"RALLY" TROPHY IS LOST; WASHINGTON U. LOSES

SEATTLE, Wash. (IP).—Stanford, 13; Washington, 7.

Some laid the defeat to a dumb forward pass attempted by the Washington backs behind their own goal. But many believe Washington lost out in the Pacific Coast race because of the loss of Washington's treasured rally trophy, its Siren. No one is yet quite sure what became of the trophy, but Stanford students are strongly suspected. It happened like this.

Early Monday afternoon before the game word came from the south that Stanford undergraduates were planning to capture the Washington Siren. Washington student officials immediately appointed a guard of two heavy undergraduates, and made preparations for having the Siren secreted.

The next morning both trophy and guards were gone. A search was instituted, and on Tuesday evening the guards, Mel Farget and Ken MacKenzie returned, reporting that they had been kidnapped by five men in a car bearing a California license, their Siren taken from them, and they themselves bound and left in an abandoned barn, all on Monday night. They released themselves Tuesday and made their way back to the campus.

Alumni and students of the University immediately instituted a search, watching all highways out of the state, both north and south, but nothing could be discovered of the culprits. The rally was held as usual on Friday evening, despite the loss, but there was something lacking. And when the Cardinals lined up against the Washington eleven on Saturday, there was a sense of despair in the very atmosphere.

TIE IN BIG TEN SEEMS IMPROBABLE THIS YEAR

ANN ARBOR, Mich. (IP).—Unless something unforeseen happens between now and the middle of November, the Big Ten championship will not go into a tie this year, as it did last year when Michigan and Northwestern both went through undefeated.

The two leaders in the race this year, Chicago and Michigan, will play each other on November 5 at Chicago. Michigan and Chicago also both play Illinois and Minnesota, the only other teams in the conference which are undefeated. A tie would be possible, of course, should one of the two beat the other and then suffer a defeat itself, but then it would be easy to dope out the best team.

To Michigan goes the honor of being the only team in the Western Conference, which has come through the season so far without a defeat or tie, and without having its goal crossed. Chicago was beaten early in the season by the non-conference Oklahoma, Minnesota tied with Indiana, and Illinois tied with Iowa State. The Wolverines have piled up a total score of 89 over Wesleyan, (Ohio), Michigan State, Wisconsin and Ohio State.

FROSH ELEVEN IS AGAIN INTACT

Preparations Being Made For Clash With Dahlgren When Devitt Game Is Canceled

C. U. FROSH LOOM AS GOAL

Turkey Day Battle Against Cardinal Yearlings Will Be Climax of Present Season

Good news greets the followers of the George Washington freshmen football team in the announcement that most of those men who were on the injured list for the past two weeks have recovered. Smith, Rangely, Billosly, and Berkowitz are again in uniform, and expect to start in the next fray with Dahlgren Naval School.

The scheduled game with Devitt School was called off by athletic officials of that institution much to the regret of Coach Ayis' charges who had waddled in the mud through several practices in anticipation of that encounter. It is now very doubtful if the first year men will meet the Devitt eleven this season due to the shortness of time.

Dahlgren Naval School is expected to give the yearlings a hard scrap, but the high point standing out in the future toward which all the energies are being bent is the preliminary game with the Catholic University freshmen on November twenty-fourth. This clash is bound to be interesting with two freshmen teams of the caliber of these meeting under the circumstances which will serve as a precedent for prelims of the coming years.

Girls' Swimming Classes Beginning

Points Will Be Awarded to Count Toward Athletic Cup Given at End of Year

Girls' swimming has now started and classes are meeting at the Y. W. C. A. pool, 17th and K Streets N. W. The hours of meeting are Tuesdays and Fridays from 4 to 4.30, and Friday evenings from 7.30 to 8.

Beginning with December 1, an additional class will meet on Tuesdays from 7.30 to 8.

Last year's athletic point system will be continued this year in women's athletics, and one point will be awarded for each attendance. Each of these points count toward the cup awarded at the close of the year.

Louise Cooke has been elected assistant manager of swimming.

COMMITTEE PLANNING W. A. A. CONSTITUTION

Athletic Awards Will Be Presented on Basis of Sportsmanship, Discipline and Attendance

The Women's Athletic Council has appointed a committee to consider ideas for the constitution of the Athletic Association.

The present organization in athletics consists of a council composed of the managers and captains of all the teams. This council is under the direction and supervision of Mrs. Russell and Miss Davis.

Julia Denning and Louise Omwake were appointed to investigate the Constitutions of the Athletic Associations of various universities and colleges. They will submit to the council such provisions as they decide may be incorporated into the George Washington Constitution.

The council has lately been working on a system for the presentation of awards on a different basis than that of former years. Not only the skill of the player will be taken into consideration, but also the sportsmanship, attendance at practices and general discipline.

As soon as the plans for the association are completed, those girls who qualify will be enrolled.

INTER-SORORITY GAMES BEGIN IN NEAR FUTURE

Sorority Matches Must Be Completed By December 1

Practice for Inter-Sorority basketball should begin at once since the games will be scheduled for dates in the next few weeks.

All Inter-Sorority matches must be completed by December 1, to be out of the way of class games. The rules governing the eligibility of players will be decided by the Panhellenic Association in a special meeting this week.

Every year a silver cup is awarded to the sorority which comes out in the lead. Kappa Delta won the cup last year. The cup must be won three successive years to be kept by the sorority.

GAME WAS RETURN MATCH

George Washington Players Will Meet Swarthmore in Important Game Next Saturday

George Washington University again scored a victory in a hockey match with American University, played on the Ellipse, Saturday, November 12, at 2 o'clock. The score was 4-1.

American University, after suffering a 3-0 defeat at the hands of the G. W. hockey squad, challenged the team to a return match.

The two elevens took the field at two o'clock. Early in the game Mary Sproul, center field scored a goal for G. W. and a few minutes later a second ball was shot into the net by Ruth Chindbloom, left inside. The single point made by American University also came in the first half.

In the first half, several girls were sent in who had never before played varsity hockey. They not only ably upheld their positions but came close to out-playing the more experienced girls. The girls who were especially noteworthy were Claudia Kyle, Ruth Chindbloom, Evelyn Folsom, and Josephine Irey.

At the beginning of the second half a number of substitutions were made in G. W.'s line-up. These changes consisted of experienced players taking the places of these girls who were having their first taste of varsity hockey. American University was held to a defensive game in this half. Jenny Turnbull, center half, brought the score up to 3-1 and Mary Sproul made the final point, her second of the game. The match ended shortly after with the score totalling 4-1 in G. W.'s favor.

Mrs. Russell noted a decided improvement in the playing of the rival team. In spite of this fact the girls of George Washington outclassed them. The athletic coach also thinks that the home squad has made considerable progress in the past season and believes that the coming game with Swarthmore will be of great interest. This game is scheduled for Saturday, November 20.

The George Washington line-up was:

Players	Position
Josephine Irey	Left Wing
Ruth Chindbloom	Center Field
Mary Sproul	Right Inside
Evelyn Folsom	Right Wing
Maxine Alverson	Left Half
Mary Ewin	Center Half
Carolyn Hobbs	Right Half
Alice Adams	Left Forward
Elizabeth Zimmerman	Right Forward
Claudia Kyle	Guard
Louise Omwake	Goal

SOCCER TEAM BEING FORMED BY G. W. GIRLS

George Washington will have, for the first time, a Girls soccer team which will be coached by Miss Davis on the Ellipse, Tuesday and Thursday afternoons, from 1.30 to 3 o'clock.

Soccer has become a sport generally popular in all American universities. Due to the interest of G. W. students it will be tried out for the first time this year. The first practice on November 8, was well attended. Soccer will continue to be played twice a week until the beginning of the basketball season.

DEBATERS WILL GIVE BIG DANCE

Columbian Debating Society Will Entertain English Orators On Night of Nov. 17

DEBATE HELD ON NOV. 18

Tryouts For Squad Completed; All Six Men On Varsity Members Of Debating Society

The Columbian Debating Society, at a weekly meeting November 11, announced the definite plans of the dance which they will give in honor of the English debaters on November 17.

The dance will be held at the home of Mrs. G. A. Shorey, 1536 Sixteenth Street, from 10 to 1. It will not be a subscription dance, but will be open to the members of the society, and to invited guests. This dance is one of the stellar events on the program for the entertainment of the Englishmen during their stay in Washington.

At the last meeting of the society, the question for discussion was, "Resolved: That Governor Fuller was justified in not granting a reprieve to Sacco and Vanzetti." After a period of scintillating and sententious arguments, the ballot was cast in favor of the affirmative.

Next Meeting Postponed

It was decided to postpone the weekly meeting for November 18 for one week, in order that the society could attend the international debate in the gymnasium. At the next meeting, after the international debate, the club will discuss the question, "Resolved: That this house believes the Administration is justified in its present Latin-American policy." The affirmative will be presented by Messrs. Rumbaugh and Garrett, while the negative will be supported by Mrs. Richmond and Mr. Keefer.

Tryouts to complete the varsity squad were held on November 8. The number of contestants showed a great increase in interest in intercollegiate debating. Six men succeeded in making the varsity squad, all of whom were members of the Columbian Debating Society. The judges for the tryouts were Professors Hall and Farnham, and the succeeding contestants were D. L. Hatch, J. H. Mason, Charles Laughlin, K. F. Frisbie, R. L. Marsons and W. S. Simpson.

G. W. GRADUATE STUDENT TO TEACH AT RUTGERS

Erwin R. Pohl, paleontologist for the Smithsonian Institution, who received his A. B. from George Washington University in 1924, and his A. M. in 1925, has left for New Brunswick, N. J., where he will be an instructor in Geology at Rutgers University.

He is now doing work toward a degree of Doctor of Philosophy and will probably receive that degree this year. "Ernie" is a member of Theta Upsilon Omega fraternity, and has been President of the Sigma Gamma Epsilon geological fraternity.

STUDES SHOULD BE WATCHED

GREENVILLE, S. C. (IP).—In a sermon recently, a local Baptist minister denounced roundly the practice of hazing college freshmen, and gave as a means of ending the sport a plan by which faculty members should stay up all night watching the students. He had in his audience a majority of the students of Furman University and Greenville Women's College.

Architecture Freshmen Finish First Problem

Eugenie Le Merle Who Won Scarab Medal is in List of Those Who Placed First

The first problem to be put before the Department of Architecture freshmen has been finished in a more or less satisfactory manner by the majority of the new men, and a list of those who placed in first rank has been issued.

The list includes the following names: S. H. Matthews, Eugenie Le Merle, F. L. Townsend, and R. J. Beall. Miss Le Merle received the Scarab Medal last year for her Class B project.

This first problem for the freshmen concerned a toll-gate at a bridgehead. The sophomore problem, it was announced at the Department, had to do with a memorial shaft.

Those placing first among the sophomores were Arthur Darton and H. H. King.

ENGLISH DEBATE FRI. RECEIVES WILD ATTENTION

Team, Andrew Haddon of Edinburgh University, took an active part in the election of Sir John Gilmour to the office of Lord Rector. Haddon has served as secretary, vice president, and president of the Edinburgh University Unionist Association, and represented his school at the International Student Service conference in Yugoslavia in 1926. His opinions tend toward nationalism, and he believes that world civilization is best served by each nation continuing to make its characteristic contribution to the culture of the whole.

Frank Ongley Darvall, of the University of Reading, is president of the Students' Union, editor of the College Magazine, vice president of the National Union of Students, and representative of the International Conference of the Students' Unions. Outside of his school activities, Darvall is a rising political figure, and was elected a delegate to the National Liberal convention in 1925.

G. W. Men Have Toured Europe

The English squad will be confronted by three George Washington men who toured England last summer, and who last winter covered the western and eastern states. They are men who have long been prominent in university activities and organizations, managing at the same time responsible positions in government work. They are especially qualified to participate in the oncoming event because of their long experience on the platform, and their previous encounters with English spokesmen. Throughout their school career they have been ardent sponsors of the Columbian Debating Society, considering that century-old organization as a training ground for their present attainments.

The home trio consists of William Williamson, of Oklahoma; John L. Seymour, of Maine, and James R. Kirkland, of the District of Columbia, who will present the negative of the proposition.

Tickets for the international debate were put on sale Wednesday, November 9, at the Registrar's Office and at the office of the Law School secretary. One ticket will be given upon the presentation of the Student Activity card, and one additional ticket will be given for 50 cents. All other tickets may be had for 75 cents. There will be no reserved seats. Complimentary tickets have been forwarded to the British Embassy, and to prominent members of the State Department, following the custom of previous debates.

The British team will be the guests of the Interfraternity Council while they are in Washington, and will be entertained at a dance which the Columbian Debating Society is planning for November 17 in honor of the English visitors.

PLEA TO KNOW "PREXY"

NEW HAVEN, Conn. (IP).—The Yale Daily News this week entered an impassioned plea for closer bonds between the university and its president. Declaring that unless the president, Dr. Angell, have some contacts with the students there will be distrust of him on their part, the News suggests that he should teach at least one course in the university.

"Undergraduates are not apt to have much confidence," said the News, "in a person whom they do not know. They are inclined to distrust his motives, and where there is distrust, there is trouble. There are plenty of instances at hand to prove this, and in each case any personal blame is unjust."

YOUNGER GENERATION UPHELD

SAN FRANCISCO, Calif. (IP).—The novelist, Kathleen Norris, expressed disagreement with Judge Ben Lindsey's companionate marriage idea here recently.

According to Mrs. Norris marriage at the age of seventeen or eighteen would be a better way of solving marital troubles which now exist, and of relieving the immoral conditions of youth.

She declared that there is less illness, more honesty and less and less of a double standard among the young folks of today.

ONE-TENTH OF M. I. T. FOREIGN BOSTON, Mass. (IP).—Almost 10 per cent of the student body of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology come from foreign countries. Of the 234 foreign students registered at the institute this term, representing 51 nationalities, 42 are of Chinese extraction, and 28 come from Canada. Eighteen students live in Russia, while there are 10 from Mexico and 10 from England.

"Wanted—Roman Senators, Skill Unnecessary," Requests Bureau

Senators, Centurions, Captain of Guard, And General Rabble Provided For Fritz Leiber's Performance of "Julius Caesar" Through G. W. U. Employment Bureau

Positions as Roman Senators are seldom offered by an Employment Bureau to its job seekers. But this Bureau was a college Employment Bureau, and thereby hangs a tale.

The ever alert Marcelle Le Menager, manager of the University employment service, heard the great Fritz Leiber plead, "Friends, Romans, countrymen, lend me your ears!" and thought she to herself, Leiber needs a bigger mob to listen and we can supply it.

From her mundane log, Miss Le Menager turned forth in two hours' notice: four Roman senators, in good condition, six centurions, and the general proletariat of the mob scenes. In the agrarian group shouting for revenge at the noble Caesar's death, there was one little Irishman who could trace his ancestry back no farther than Saint Patrick.

Son of Israel Shines

A member of the tribe of Israel, who with a little putty on his nose would have passed as Caesar's ghost at any Halloween party, and a member of the United States Army, who because of his long military experience was made a Captain of the Guard were other notables selected. Leiber remarked that he felt sure that if this captain had only been on Brutus' side at the battle of Philippi, history would have told a different story.

Yes, Rome in her period of bourgeois ascendancy, never suffered a mob so destructive and vicious as that one which sought to hang the poet Cinna on the Auditorium stage last Friday night. At one time, so fierce was the mob, that it would not allow one of the actors to go on the platform at his cue.

The play had progressed to that stirring scene in which Caesar is assassinated. The Senate was assembled, Caesar on his throne, the curtain rising. But no gavel was sounded, no senator spoke, not a stir was made. What was wrong? Were they all stricken dumb with their guilty fear of what was to follow? No. A loud whisper reverberated backstage—"The Soothsayer, where is the Soothsayer?" And the gray haired venerable who was warning us to be a voice when Caesar was stabbed, turned on his heel and ran in wild abandon for the wing.

Does a Charley Dawes

History repeats itself. He had forgotten the opening session of congress just as Charley Dawes did two years ago. But this session found it necessary to wait for him; for his "Beware the Ides of March," was much more important than anything Charley could have said. When the Soothsayer returned from the footlights we heard him say to Leiber, "A Soothsayer can't make two revelations at once, Caesar."

In part remuneration, and in appreciation of the services of the mob, Caesar willed "To every Roman citizen, to every several man, seventy-five drachmas." And what is more, Antony spoke these words of Caesar: "Moreover, he hath left you all his walks, his private arbours, and new-planted orchards on this side Tiber; he hath left them you, and to your heir forever." Wherefore the G. W. students felt highly compensated for supporting Caesar.

When more unique jobs are offered the George Washington University Employment Bureau will fill them. What have you—a furnace to be stoked, a or portrait to be painted? Page Miss Le Menager.

TAU CLUB INSTALLED AS TAU CHAPTER OF O. A. T.

Nine students of George Washington University, who formerly made up the roster of the Tau Club, were duly installed as the Tau Chapter of Omicron, Alpha, Tau international fraternity last Saturday evening at the Hotel Washington.

Mr. I. Robert Broder, Grand Chancellor of O. A. T., was toastmaster. Paul Groppe of George Washington University was the guest of honor. The visiting contingent was composed of Professor H. A. Chaplin of Syracuse University; Mr. Benjamin Greenstein, past chancellor of the Lambda Chapter at the University of Penn.; Mr. Mortimer S. Edelstein of the grand chapter and member of Lambda and Joseph Lifschitz, chancellor of Lambda.

Those who were installed as charter members of the Tau Chapter of O. A. T. were: Harold P. Auslander of Brooklyn, N. Y.; William H. Simons of Bridgeport, Conn.; Leo Sydney D. Goodman of Bridgeport, Conn.; Joseph Prulitsky of Newark, N. J.; Michael Harrison Greenberg of Washington, D. C.; Morris A. Klatzkin of Washington, D. C.; Maurice Bud Friedman of Bridgeport, Conn.; Benjamin Goldman of Washington, D. C., and Paul P. Lippman of Brooklyn, N. Y.

The officers of the newly formed chapter are: Harold P. Auslander, chancellor; William H. Simons, vice-chancellor; Leo Sydney D. Goodman, scribe; and Joseph Prulitsky, bur-sar.

MERCER FROSH ARE HAPPY

MACON, Ga. (IP).—Freshmen at Mercer College are happy. The ban which allowed them to smoke only corn cob pipes, has been lifted by the senior class at the Baptist University. The other freshmen regulations all are still in vogue, however.

Britons Will Be Feted By Frats

Interfraternity Council Will Also Hold Tea Dance Thanksgiving And Annual Smoker Dec. 1

Members of the British Debating team who will invade George Washington will be entertained in this city by the Interfraternity Council, according to plans adopted Sunday by that body.

The debaters who will arrive Thursday, at 4 o'clock from Morgantown, W. Va., will probably be feted more than any freshmen who were ever rushed by a Colonial fraternity.

Dances will be given for them, and they will be given opportunity to meet the shining lights among the G. W. co-eds and other beautiful girls of the city.

Smoker Is Planned

According to members of the Acacia fraternity, where they slept, during the last visit of English debaters in this city, the most amusing moment of all is when the Britishers get on the 'phone and inquire, "Are you there?"

Among other matters discussed by the Council were the annual Interfraternity Council Smoker on December 1, and the tea dance, to be held Thanksgiving Day, after the Catholic University game, after the dance.

The next meeting of the Council will be held at the Sigma Phi Epsilon house, 1810 Connecticut Avenue N. W., on December 4.

STUDENT WINS WAGER

EASTON, Pa. (IP).—Roland S. Finley, undergraduate at Lafayette College, who recently bet a good cigar with Professor Miller D. Steever, that he could get a job at manual labor in New York City within 24 hours of the time he set out looking for it without using special influence to get it, has won his bet.

Finley came back from New York and presented Professor Miller and his class in Socialism with evidence that he had been at work in New York.

One week before Professor Steever had told his class that employment conditions in this country were wretched, and that it was almost impossible for a man to get a job even if he wanted it.

Finley, a senior, rose and challenged the professor that he could get a job anywhere within 24 hours. The bet was made, Professor Steever offering to pay the undergraduate's expenses if he won the bet.

"BRAINS" NOT HEREDITARY

NEW YORK (IP).—Superior intelligence is not a result of heredity, according to Dr. Raymond Pearl, who writes in the November issue of the American Mercury. Dr. Pearl made an investigation into the parentage of sixty-three great philosophers, and found that they were all mediocre people, and under the plans of the present-day eugenical zealots, would have been sterilized in many cases.

PLAN TWO 20-MINUTE SERVICES EACH WEEK

Fred East, Popular Baritone, Will Sing at Exercises on Friday; Profs to Talk

That the "spirit of disobedience" is the factor which leads to all troubles of mankind, such as war, was one of the thoughts of Dean Wilbur's Armistice Day talk, at chapel last Friday.

When disobedience to the fundamental laws is overcome, then, the unnaturalness of war will be nonexistent, said Dean Wilbur. In telling of the joy of Armistice Day, the Dean told of the joy that followed the armistice on the memorable evening nine years ago.

Earl Carbauh, the soloist of the Central Presbyterian Church, sang "Peace," by Harker, the solo which he sang for President Wilson the Sunday the President returned from the Peace Conference.

At the short chapel yesterday Dean Lapham spoke and Margaret Moreland, soprano, sang.

Spaulding to Sing

It has been announced that all the University chapels this year will be short, being only 20 minutes long, beginning at 12.10 and ending at 12.30, on Tuesdays and Fridays. While outside speakers will be invited at times, the plan is to present a different faculty member or administrative officer at each chapel in a five-minute talk. This will give the students a chance to know "who's who" on the faculty, besides the professors whose classes they are taking.

Instead of being "dead" affairs, as the word "chapel" suggests to some students, the University chapels will be interesting and carefully planned, it is said. In addition to the five-minute talk, at each chapel there will be a soloist. Some of the best musicians in Washington have consented to sing or play, and there are professional musicians in the student body of the University and on the faculty who will be the soloists.

At the University chapel on Friday of this week, Fred East, popular Washington baritone, will be the soloist, and on the following Tuesday, November 22, Professor Spaulding, of the Law School, will sing.

ANNUAL MUSICAL COMEDY PLANNED BY TROUBADOURS

Elmer Brown, Who Will Compose Score, Is New Managing Director of Group

LARRY PARKER WILL WRITE BOOK OF PLAY

Presentations Given By Troubadours in Last Two Years Were Great Successes

The Troubadours will present their third annual musical comedy sometime early in January, according to the plans for the current year just announced by the organization.

Elmer Brown is the new managing director and will also compose the musical score, while Larry Parker will write the book.

This year's venture by the Troubadours will be their third original musical comedy. In 1922 the presentation of "Just a Kiss" was hailed as one of the most popular achievements in George Washington University dramatics and as marking a milestone. In 1923 the production of "Not Yet Fleurette" further established the Troubadours, and they have since become an independent producing company.

Managed by Students

The organization of the Troubadours this year will be similar to that of the Dramatic Association, in that each executive department will be managed by a capable student, to whom a number of assistants will be responsible, later working up to the management.

Mr. Brown, who has already completed some of the musical score, has a high mark at which to aim, as the tuneless music of last year is still popularly remembered by all. The book, which will be done by Larry Parker, is announced as having as basis, good old college days that should appeal to all students.

The Troubadours will this year move out of the Gym, and the 1923 production will probably be given at the Wardman Park Theater. With production date rapidly drawing near, the Troubadours are already busily at work upon the play.

Big Men On Campus Root For St. Vincent Eleven; Think They Are Colonials

We do not know whether Prof. Middleton has had any former connections with our last opponents, St. Vincent's College, or whether "Babe" Whyte, our B. M. O. C., expects to attend that institution next year, but there is no doubt that these two were certainly yelling for the players in the yellow jerseys at the game in the Central Stadium on Saturday.

The gentlemen's explanations were that George Washington's men were slated to don this questioning shade of buff against St. Vincent. However, you know and I know that whatever the color of the Colonials' "disguise" no G. W. backer ought to be confused when it comes to recognizing such interesting figures as Sapp, Carey and Stehman.

MEN'S G. W. CLUB TO MEET TO PLAN DANCE

Annual Football Hop Will Be Staged in Gym; Date Not Yet Settled

The Men's G. W. Club will meet in Lisner Hall, Room 21, tonight at 8.15, for the purpose of making final plans for holding the annual Football Hop. All letter men at the University are urged to attend whether they are members of the G. W. Club or not.

It is expected that the annual dance given in honor of the football team will be bigger than in any previous year because of the excellent record made by the team this year and because of the resulting pep evidenced by the whole student body.

According to present arrangements the hop will take place early in December. The exact date and place has not yet been settled, but it is very probable that the affair will be held in the University Gymnasium as was the case in former years.

It is expected that President Marvin, Coach Crum, and members of the team will speak.

NORTHERN LIGHTS NEED MINUS 395 DEGREES

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn. (IP).—A temperature of 395 degrees below zero, or less, is necessary before there can be any Northern Lights, or aurora borealis, according to Professor William C. Beal, of the department of astronomy at the University of Minnesota.

According to the Gopher instructor, experiment has shown that when fine crystals of solid nitrogen are bombarded by electrons at and below this temperature, they become luminous.

Electrons, coming from the sun, the professor explains, strike the earth on the illuminated side, so that the general luminosity prevents the fainter light from being seen. Near the magnetic poles of the earth, however, the earth's magnetic field turns the streams of electrons toward the earth, causing them to enter the atmosphere on the darkened side, or at night.

The reason that the northern lights appear more intense at times is that more electrons are then shot out of the sun.

The phenomenon of aurora borealis is now at the marauder or its ten year cycle.

MONTANA PREXY STUDIES

ITHACA, N. Y. (IP).—President Alfred Atkinson, of the University of Montana, who is taking his sabbatical year, is a "student" this year at Cornell. The western president is studying the administrative methods of Cornell, as well as its manner of handling freshmen. At the same time he will pursue courses in plant breeding and other departments of the university. At the first faculty meeting of the year here he will be granted an honorary fellowship which will entitle him to all the privileges of the university.

Kodak Week To Be Cherry Tree Feature; Publicity Campaign Will Start Soon

Secrets of New Cherry Tree Will Be Revealed in Near Future; New Staff Rules in Force; Many Positions Are Still Open

If a surprised student of George Washington University happens upon the campus some time in the near future, he will be amazed at the Cherry Tree enthusiasts "kodaking" themselves with eager frenzy. For it will be "Kodak Week."

"Kodak Week" is to be set aside for George Washington University students to picture themselves on the campus for Cherry Tree material. The backbone of the University year book will be procured. All size photographs will be accepted, provided they are neither life size nor taken with a pin-hole camera. The date of this week will be announced by Warren Briggs, Photography Editor, as soon as it is determined. Class pictures, pictures of organizations, and so forth, will be taken by a regular photographer on the campus after the mid-year examinations.

Secrets Forthcoming

And secrets! The Cherry Tree has something inside its bark besides the ordinary, and nobody is to know until the advertising campaign begins. But it is going to positively identify the Cherry Tree with George Washington University; it is promised that all who buy this issue will be overjoyed.

The business manager, Frank Kreglow, is devoting most of his time to the business side, and plans to have the most efficient publicity department ever had at George Washington. He divulged at the last meeting, held November 10, that there are still many positions open to enterprising students on the business staff. All who have had any previous experience anywhere else are welcomed, as are novices.

Virginia Blackstone, Managing Editor, has advised The Hatchet that there are positions open on the Cherry Tree editorial staff, also, but that, as these are going at a terrific rate, those who have looked forward to joining must see her immediately; she will be at The Hatchet Office to sign them up.

Editorial Rules Changed

Whereas the faculty last year appointed five editors on the board, this year it has appointed thirteen; these will select editors for next year, and so on through the ages. The same is happening with the manager and his assistants on the business side. So a person who joins either staff may have an important position in his second year. This gives great opportunity for freshmen to be in the line for something worthwhile in their sophomore year. It is expected freshmen will take advantage of this new ruling, and other classes can probably profit also, it is said.

Advertising assistants, the business manager recently announced, will receive ten per cent of all money they turn in from advertisements procured for the Cherry Tree. The number of these assistants is unlimited, so enterprising students can easily make money for Christmas, a time when it will come in handy. The next board meeting is unannounced, but will probably be held in the near future.

G. W. Students Foil Thief's Bold Attempt

Chase Leads Students Through Dark Alleys Before Culprit Is Finally Overtaken

Following a colored purse-snatcher in his bold attempt to rob a woman on H Street between Twenty-first and Twenty-second Streets Northwest, last Saturday evening, J. Harold Stehman, popular George Washington student and member of Phi Sigma Kappa fraternity, chased the thief through some of the most secluded and shadowy alleys of the northwest section of the city, overtaking him and seizing the purse after a run of several blocks.

Stehman and George Spangler, of Acadia fraternity and fleet-footed students of G. W. were near the scene of the daring robbery. Both started in pursuit of the culprit, and by taking two or three quick turns through an alley, Stehman reached the negro first.

In the ensuing struggle, Stehman seized the thief by the throat, and by the judicious application of his brute strength, he soon had the negro at his mercy.

Spangler, publicity manager for the G. W. U. Dramatic Association, assisted Stehman in turning the colored thief over to the proper authorities who took him to the Police Station number three.

The purse was returned to its owner.

OLD ROMANCE REVIVED AFTER LONG SEPARATION

URBANA, Ill. (IP).—George Edward Harding and Elizabeth Edith Lord were schoolmates in high school, and as high school kids will do, they "went with each other."

They graduated, and the letters became few and far between, until the affair was about closed. Elizabeth went to Michigan and then got a job in vaudeville. George is a sophomore at Illinois.

The other night George went to the theater and Elizabeth was on the stage. The old feeling came back as George saw his former sweetheart in the lure of the stage lights, and after the show he attempted to call her, only to be thwarted by stage hands.

The next day he met her, courted her, and at midnight they were married. Harding returned to classes next day and his bride went to Springfield to fulfill another vaudeville engagement.

Peggy Ann Tackett, Our Own G. W. Girl, Causes New Gridiron Upset

Lafayette Had Been Conquered By Georgetown, But George Washington, In the Person of Its Co-Ed Vanquishes Captain of Team That Met Hilltoppers Here

Peggy Ann Tackett's two-day whirl wind romance, the romance of the girl called George Washington University's prettiest co-ed, began when she extended her sympathies to Harold D. Cothran, captain and right tackle of the Lafayette College football team, Saturday, November 5, after the Pennsylvania gridirers had gone down in defeat at the hands of the Georgetown University eleven, and ended when the two were married the following Monday.

Saturday evening Peggy Tackett attended the banquet of the football teams of Georgetown University and Lafayette College given at the Mayflower Hotel by the Interfraternity Club. Captain Cothran was a speaker, and the praise of the vanquished leader for his conquerors in the football game of but a few hours before won the G. W. co-ed.

After the banquet Peggy and the Lafayette captain renewed their ac-

Team For Debate With West Virginia Chosen

Ruth Kernan Is Chairman of Team; Lillian Rhodes and Virginia Frye Other Members

Definite work on Women's Debate began Wednesday, November 9, with try-outs for the team to debate West Virginia early next month at George Washington. The six who tried out made five-minute speeches on either side of the question, "Resolved, That the United States Should Now Abandon the Monroe Doctrine."

After the formal speech, each underwent a thorough quizzing by the judges; Miss Helen Newman, Professor Farnham, and Professor Hall. The team chosen was Ruth Kernan, chairman; Lillian Rhodes, Virginia Frye, and Louise Feinstein, alternate. Miss Kernan and Miss Rhodes represented George Washington last year in a very successful season.

The team met Friday night to formulate definite plans for the debate.

OKLAHOMA STUDENTS DEMAND FEWER RULES

NORMAN, Okla. (IP).—The students held a mass meeting to find out why the University of Oklahoma authorities were so strict.

The cheer leader got up on the stage and started to lead a yell which goes "O.K.-L-A-H-O-M-A." The students yelled, "R-E-V-O-L-U-T-I-O-N," and the strike was on.

More than two thousand undergraduates are demanding that they be allowed to have dates every evening in the week and all day Sunday, and that they be allowed to hold dances until midnight on Fridays and Saturdays. A committee was appointed to meet with the president of the university and negotiate.

ANTI-SALOON LEADER'S SON IS "WET"

RICHMOND, Va. (IP).—Convicted of transporting whiskey, Carroll V. Hepburn, 23, son of the Rev. David Hepburn, superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League of Virginia, has been sentenced to pay a fine of $50 and spend ten days in jail. A jury returned a verdict of not guilty on an indictment charging the youth with driving while intoxicated.

An automobile in which young Hepburn was riding when arrested, was registered in the name of the Anti-Saloon League, and was confiscated.

Alumni Association Will Be Host of Football Squad At Annual Dinner Dec. 1

"In downtown Washington where the hum of traffic and the bustle of commerce remove all thoughts of the gridiron, a football transformation has taken place that has won for George Washington University a secure position among the leading college football teams of this section." These words of the Washington Post are taken by the General Alumni Association as evidence of the reputation which the Colonial gridirers have made for themselves this year.

Thursday, December 1, has been set as the date of the annual Football Dinner given by the Alumni Association in honor of the gridiron team and the coach. The affair, which will be held at the Lafayette Hotel, promises to be well attended, due to the enthusiasm being shown by the alumni at the record of the football team this season.

The Football Supper caps the season, occurring shortly after the Catholic University game on Thanksgiving, and the faculty and students join with the alumni in paying homage to the football squad.

Lewis T. Moneyway is chairman of the committee in charge of all arrangements for the affair.

GLEE CLUB HARMONY PREVAILS AT SMOKER

Annual Affair Held at Thomas Circle Club, Evokes Enthusiasm Among Seventy-five People

Last Thursday night the Glee Club held its annual smoker at the Thomas Circle Club.

Sixty-five men attended, including Dean John R. Lapham, faculty advisor to the Glee Club, Professor Elmer Louis Kayser, Secretary of the University, Professor Gropp, director of the orchestra, and Professors Spaulding and Hall of the Law School.

One of the features of this entertaining evening was the singing of several baritone solos by Professor Spaulding. This was followed by Henry Klinge's Orchestra which rendered several numbers. Then came the Harmonious Quartet who sang negro spirituals.

Director Harmon, President Jim Fleck, and all of the visiting members of the faculty, gave short talks praising Director Harmon and his club for the work done in former seasons and expressing their confidence in the ability of the present club to outdo its predecessors in the finished quality of its singing.
